How to use this guide

The Purolator Zone Guide works in combination with the Purolator Rate Guide to help you quickly and easily calculate the cost of your shipment. Use this Guide to reference the specific Zone Table (e.g. Services within Canada) that corresponds to your shipment destination. The Zone Tables contain all postal codes, zip codes and international countries you have the option of shipping to or from – each defined by a zone. Follow the simple steps below to identify your shipment’s zone, which is represented by a zone code.

Before proceeding, ensure that you are using the correct Purolator Zone Guide by confirming that your origin postal code (the postal code you are shipping from or importing to) falls within the range of postal codes listed on the front cover of this Guide. If required, additional Purolator Zone Guides are available at purolator.com/rates.

How to look up your zone code:

1. Turn to the Zone Table referenced below that describes your shipment’s destination.

Services within Canada	p. 11
Services from Canada to the United States	p. 14
Services from Canada to the Rest of the World	p. 16
Services to Canada from the United States	p. 19
Services to Canada from the Rest of the World	p. 21

2. On the Zone Table, locate the postal code, zip code or international country that corresponds to where you are shipping to or importing from.
3. The letter/number combination located immediately to the right of this postal code, zip code or international country is your zone code (e.g. D02).
4. Using the zone code you just identified above, refer back to the Purolator Rate Guide (available at purolator.com/rates) and follow the instructions found within that Guide to find your shipping rate.

Learn more about our delivery service options available to you – these are featured in our Purolator Rate Guide, Purolator Zone Guides and Purolator Service Guide.

Please note the Purolator Terms and Conditions of Service, available at purolator.com, will prevail in the case of any inconsistencies between this document and the Purolator Terms and Conditions of Service.
